HOPE'S VICTORY OVER MAGNOLIA HERE LAST Friday night assured the Bobcats of no less than a tie for the 4-AA conference championship—all that remains for Hope to eliminate one-loss Smackover is to defeat Camden next Friday night at Camden. Hope presently stands 4-0 in conference play, its lone season loss having been to ranking Big Ten conference member Texarkana, Ark.

Jordan; and No. 30, FB Wayne Moses. IT WAS AN INTERCEPTION BY WASSELL, with one minute to go in the third quarter, that won the ball game. Wassell took a Magnolia pass on his own 48 and ran 52 yards for the score, making it Hope 26; Magnolia 20. A fan asked the editor whether he got the picture — and the editor replied: "You never saw a picture of an intercepted pass in your life. All sports photos are largely a matter of luck — and to picture an interception you would have to photograph every play in the game." Anyway, we got this picture of Wassell on another play.

LATE IN THE FIRST QUARTER END GEORGE Wright, Jr., No. 84, arrow, took a pass from Quarterback Mack McLarty from the Magnolia 19 and raced to the goal line. Point was good and the score stood: Hope 7; Magnolia 7. (Other Pictures on Pages 4 and 8)

Youth Saved From Cliff by Firemen

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Little Rock youth was rescued from the face of a cliff by Little Rock firemen Sunday after a companion had fallen 55 feet to the base of the cliff.

Kenny Herndon, 16, suffered a broken arm, crushed vertebra and multiple bruises and lacerations in the fall. Benny Hooks, 16, was plucked from the face of the cliff by firemen who used an aerial ladder and ropes. A third youth, Benny Loftis, 16, climbed down from the cliff unassisted to get aid for his companions.

After his rescue, Hooks said the three had climbed back up the cliff and were climbing back up when they were stopped by loose shale.

Loftis, who was following, urged Hooks and Herndon to stay in place while he got help. Hooks said Herndon decided to try to make it anyway, and lost his footing. Firemen dropped a rope to Hooks who tied it around his waist and was lowered to the aerial ladder which had been extended to within 30 feet of him.

American Women Seem to Be Lagging Behind the Men in Higher Education Trend

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail!

American women are lagging farther behind in higher education. They outnumber the male sex in high school, but not in college. Women now earn only one in three bachelors' and masters' degrees, and only one in ten doctorates.

Worse yet are these figures: Four million adult U.S. women have had less than five years of schooling and 11½ million started but failed to finish high school.

We've just discovered that National Macaroni Week is over—and we failed to celebrate with a single meal. But it is nice to know, isn't it, that if the 1½ billion pounds of Macaroni products we consume each year were converted to spaghetti, they'd stretch 102,414,000 miles.

British science has come up with what may turn out to be the wonder drug of the century. It's a tranquilizer that reportedly turns women's hair blonde at the same time it calms their nerves. Supposed to work on men, too, fellows.

It takes 200 employees to staff Buckingham Palace's 780 rooms. The palace also has 300 clocks and 50 television sets. Don't be the kind of boss who Thieves in the first nine months of this year stole 249,368 cars valued at $225 million, a 13 per cent increase over the same period in 1962.

Ever wonder what the difference is between a wiener and a frankfurter? It's a matter of size, butchers say. Franks are usually about an inch thick and four inches long; wieners are about ¾ inch thick and 5½ inches or more long.

Miss America to Get Big Homecoming

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It might as well be Donna Axum Week in Arkansas this week as three cities prepare for her first trip back home after winning the Miss America crown Sept. 7.

The festivities start Thursday in Hot Springs. It is traditional that Miss America return to the place where she won the state beauty title.

El Dorado, her hometown, and Little Rock will be the next site for welcoming ceremonies.

Waiting to greet Miss Axum when she steps off the airplane at Hot Springs will be a host of dignitaries from Arkansas as well as the four finalists in the Miss America contest. It will be the first time the four finalists have taken part in such a state celebration.

Next on the Hot Springs agenda is a press conference, then a parade at 6:30 followed by a testimonial banquet.

Miss Axum flies to El Dorado Friday morning for another airport welcoming ceremony, a press conference, a parade and a banquet.

The El Dorado parade will feature 40 bands and 18 floats and is expected to draw a crowd of between 30,000 and 50,000. A gala outdoor pageant will be staged in El Dorado Friday night after the parade.

One other El Dorado event will be the presentation of an award to accompany Miss Axum's new title of Miss Air Force Recruiter of 1964.

The Little Rock ceremony will come at halftime of the Arkansas-Texas A&M football game. Miss Axum was a student at the University before she won the nation's top beauty award.

County Farm Bureau President Autrey Wilson will direct the meeting. Other business of the organization also will be conducted, including election of board and voting delegates. Others appearing on the program are:

Recommendations also will be made on farm matters of state and national significance. They will be forwarded to the Arkansas Farm Bureau for consideration at its annual convention in November.

"We hope a record number of farmers will participate in the Convention," Chairman Sidney Cash said, "so that the recommendations will have full discussion and the best possible program can be devised for the coming year."

Ballots Mailed to Residents on Paving Deal

The City of Hope has mailed out ballot cards to property owners in Ward 1 in an effort to get a proposed $640,000 street and sewer project off the ground.

The card has three questions, 1. Do you favor the sewer-paving project; 2-Are you against the project and 3. Do you want more information.

October 8 a public meeting drew an estimated 500 or more residents who were openly hostile to the project. Petitions left at the door of the auditorium were left unsigned by property owners. Two-thirds of the property owners in the area involved have to sign a petition of approval before an improvement district can be formed.

Under the proposed program $250,000 is covered by a federal grant; $128,000 to be borne by the municipal water and light plant earning, leaving a balance of $262,000 or 40% on an improvement district mortgage over 20 years and to be paid by property owners.

"Our troops are not pushing on," Boutaleb said. "All I can tell you is that they are there."

JFK to Get Answer Today on Rights Plea

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy gets the answer today to his request for bipartisan agreement on a civil rights bill.

The House Judiciary Committee is due to vote Tuesday on a bill Kennedy fears is too controversial to pass. Whether it can be blocked depends on the success of an intensive feeling campaign by the administration.

Since Thursday, when Kennedy won a postponement of the crucial committee vote, the Justice Department has been negotiating with House Republican leaders to see how strong a bill they will accept.

Halloween Project to Help Needy

Halloween in Hope will be a time for you to help the needy children of the world through a United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund. The UNICEF Halloween project will be conducted locally by members of the junior and senior high youth departments of the First Methodist Church plus any other interested young person in town.

Instead of playing the usual "Trick or Treat" this Halloween, the young people of Hope, wearing proper identification tags, will solicit your aid for the UN Children's Fund. Through UNICEF a little goes a long way. For instance, 1c can mean 5 glasses of milk or a child protected from TB, and 10c provides 50 vitamins to combat malnutrition.

Last fall some 3 million American children in 12,000 communities devoted their fun on October 31 to saving the lives of needy children in the world by participating in the UNICEF Halloween program.

All interested youth in Hope should meet at the First Methodist Church on Halloween at 6:15 p.m. Adult sponsors are Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bader, Mrs. Arch Wylie, Mrs. Billy Monts, and the Rev. Gladwin Connell.

Miss Raffaeali charmed the group by playing two piano solos, "Sonata in F Major, Third Movement" by Mozart and "Scherzo in E minor" by Mendelssohn. Her mother, Mrs. Joe B. Raffaeali, Jr., and her music teacher, Mrs. W. L. Wood, were among those present.

Mrs. Arch Wylie, President of the Friday Music Club, the hostess club, welcomed the representatives from each club in the district, and Mrs. B. C. Birkhead of Arkadelphia gave the response. Fall chrysanthemums and celosia decorated the First Baptist Church sanctuary where the business meeting was held. During the morning and afternoon sessions Mrs. William J. Perkinson of Texarkana, District President, was in charge.

Musical numbers were presented in the morning by Friday Music Club members. Mrs. Haskell Jones, accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Hyatt, sang two songs by Lillian Routon, an honorary member of the Friday Music Club. They were "Gypsy Feet" and "Cotton Field Dream." Mrs. H. A. Spraggins and Mrs. J. V. Moore, Jr. played an organ-piano duet, "The Violet" by Mozart. In the afternoon Bill Flanders, music education director of the First Baptist Church, showed a film, "Music in Healing."

Invitations were accepted to hold the Junior Music Festival in Camden in the spring of 1964 and the district meeting in Magnolia in the fall of 1964. New officers for the ensuing year are: president, Mrs. Russell Woodell of Arkadelphia; vice-president, Mrs. George Jordan of Camden; secretary, Mrs. Kelsey Moore of Foreman; treasurer, Miss Frances Crawford of Arkadelphia; members-at-large, Mrs. William J. Perkinson of Texarkana and Mrs. Talbot Field, Jr. of Hope.

U.S. Planning Full Speed on Moon Landing

By BARRY CHWEID
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—It's full speed ahead for the U.S. program to land a man on the moon in this decade.

That's the way American space officials greeted Sunday the news from Moscow that Soviet Premier Khrushchev apparently has pulled his country out of any moon race.

And Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, chairman of the Senate Space committee, agreed.

"First of all, I do not believe we should develop our space programs on the basis of the press statements of Mr. Khrushchev," the New Mexico Democrat told The Associated Press.

However, there were signs elsewhere that the Russian leader's move may provide ammunition for American critics of heavy space spending.

In an interview Saturday night in Moscow with touring journalists, Khrushchev declared:

"At present we are not planning manned moon flights."

"I have read a report to the effect that the Americans want to land a man on the moon by 1970. Well, I wish them success. And we shall watch how they fly there, how they come to earth, or rather come to moon, and this is the main thing, how they take off and return home."

The reaction in Washington was varied.

James E. Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said

Music Clubs Hold District Meet Here

Members' of the Southwest District, Arkansas Federation of Music Clubs, were treated to special performances by scholarship winners, Miss Camille Bishop of Nashville and Miss Becca Raffaeali of Texarkana, at the district meeting held in Hope on Saturday, October 26. A violin, tiny grand pianos, fall leaves, and chrysanthemums decorated the dining tables where a turkey dinner was served.

Miss Bishop, 1963 District Scholarship Winner to Inspiration Point, was accompanied at the piano by her father, Mark Bishop, when she sang "A Heart That's Free" before an assembled group of 36. She also accounted highlights of Inspiration Point to the great interest of all.

Miss Raffaeali charmed the group by playing two piano solos, "Sonata in F Major, Third Movement" by Mozart and "Scherzo in E minor" by Mendelssohn. Her mother, Mrs. Joe B. Raffaeali, Jr., and her music teacher, Mrs. W. L. Wood, were among those present.

Ship Lines Stick to Wheat Rates

WASHINGTON (AP)—American shipping lines reportedly have rebuffed a government plea that they reconsider the rates they would charge for moving American wheat to Russia.

However, officials say privately that the argument between the U.S. Maritime Administration and the shipowners is far from closed and that the government still hopes to come to terms with the shipping industry.

Russian refusal to pay the higher rates charged by American ships is holding up the prospective sale of $250 million worth of wheat to the Soviet bloc. President Kennedy has stipulated that the grain must be moved on American ships where available.

But there is no such shipping restriction on selling other grains to Communist nations and the Commerce Department issued today its fourth export license in five days authorizing shipment of yellow corn to Hungary.

The total this time is 800,000 bushels of yellow corn, the equivalent of 20,000 long tons, valued at $1,290,320. It will not have to be transported in American ships.

As before, the Commerce Department did not name the company obtaining the license today. The previous licensees have included Cargill Inc., Minneapolis, and Continental Grain Co.

In an interview with touring journalists in Moscow Saturday night, Soviet Premier Khrushchev said: "If the Americans in selling us wheat will advance any discriminatory conditions, then we will not buy wheat in America. This is the state of affairs."

Khrushchev did not specify the "discriminatory conditions," but his reference evidently was to the fact that about 20 to 30 cents a bushel higher than foreign ships.

Washington officials did not comment publicly on his remarks. However, they said privately his objection was only a public statement of the position Soviet negotiators have been taking all along.

The two deaths Sunday boosted the state's violent death toll to 26 for the week ended at midnight Sunday.

One person died in a fall from a hospital window at Little Rock, one person died in a fire, one drowned, five died in shootings and 18 died in traffic accidents.

JFK to Get

A busy round of weekend meetings with Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, ranking Republican on the judiciary committee, who kept in close touch by telephone with minority leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, led to cautious hopes an agreement might be possible.

Democratic leaders were scheduled to meet with Kennedy late today to find out what the GOP position is and decide whether they can join in it.

The bill Kennedy objects to is a 10-part omnibus measure a judiciary subcommittee superimposed on the administration's original seven-part package.

It strengthens all the administration proposals and includes a section authorizing powers for the attorney general that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has called "dangerous."

The administration's efforts have been devoted to inducing Democrats and Republicans on the committee to support a bill Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has called "dangerous."

Henderson Victim of the Aggies

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansas A&M crammed nine points into the last 2:22 of the football game against Henderson in Pine Bluff Saturday night to retain its hold on first place in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference standings.
The Aggies got a 19-yard field goal from Ronnie Higgins and a one-yard scoring dive from Dale Boutwell to whip the Reddies, who were previously unbeaten in AIC play.
In other games involving AIC teams:
State Teachers trimmed Southern State 19-0; Harding College overran Millsaps College 39-0; and Ouachita socked Ozarks 22-12.
Higgins' field goal came with 2:22 to play and ended three quarters and 12 minutes of football that amounted to a game of chase. The Aggies piled up over 250 yards rushing while holding Henderson to 135.
Carl Preston's spectacular catch of a pass from Donnie Lindsey to the Henderson 21 kept A&M's drive toward the field goal alive.
The Reddies, desperate for points, yielded the ball on downs at their 22 after four fruitless plays, and A&M needed only three plays to move to the one and Boutwell plowed over there.
State Teachers was completely dominated on the field by Southern State, but the Bears conjured up the big plays that tied together a pair of 80 yard scoring drives, and then got an easy touchdown.
Quarterback Bobby Tiner raced 36 yards and tailback Phil Carter charged 35 yards to the Southern State seven to keep the first 80-yard march rolling in the first quarter. Tiner got the touchdown from the six.
Tiner passed 39 yards to wingback Robert Stone and hit Larry Walton with a 33-yard pass for a touchdown in the second drive.
Linebacker Jerry Harrison intercepted a Gary Elia pass at the Muleriders' 11 and scored with 3:45 to play.
Teachers ran 41 plays, to 80 for Southern State, and trailed in rushing, 219 yards to 148.
Sophomore Gail Mote made his debut as a fullback (he had been an end) and ground out 65 yards on 16 carries to lead Harding over Millsaps.
Mote got the Bisons' second touchdown on a seven-yard run. The first one came by Loved Peacock, who gained 25 yards in four straight carries to take the ball across.
Bob Pearcey scooted 42 yards with a pass interception for a score. Tom Carter threw 32 yards to Donnie Cox, who later intercepted a pass to set up Bill Brock's one-yard touchdown dive.
Erwin Davis circled end from four yards out to cap a 59-yard Bison push and end scoring.
Frank Spahnour shot passes of 12 yards to Jimmy Jackson and six yards to Jack Mills for first half touchdowns that started the Tigers over Ozarks.
Jackie Elliot, a freshman end, blocked an Ozarks punt, which then rolled out of the end zone, for another Tiger tally, and David Osman went six yards on an end run for the last Ouachita score.
Larry Bryant ran the option for six yards and a Mountaineer touchdown in the second quarter, and was on the throwing end of a wild 73-yard pass play that resulted in a touchdown.
Bryant's pass was deflected by John Estes, but halfback Carl Hunter jerked it out of the air at the Tigers' 35 and ran it over.

FINANCES GET, ETC.
By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: We're a happy family in that we all love each other but, try as my husband and I will, it's been one darn thing after another ever since we married. The latest crisis was an emergency operation on me. Since my husband's work (he's a contractor) is never steady, I've been doing what I can to supplement our income but now don't feel strong enough to leave home to earn money.

Our eldest daughter is 19 and our small son is 6. After him came two more; all loving, gay-hearted and eager to do for each other. Our daughter will receive her B.S. in education on her twentieth birthday and soon be self-supporting. But there are still the others to clothe and feed. We own a farm which we can't afford to farm but revel in country life. Could you advise me on ways to earn money at home? I make nearly all of our clothes, do fancy work, embroidery and crochet. Keep my husband's books, and enjoy housework. I'm a good cook! I bought a starter kit for leathercraft and am willing, eager and capable. Any ideas? —Homebody

Dear Homebody: You are already giving your children the most important things in life—love and security, and the rare and wonderful opportunity to grow up on a farm. You have evidently done a fine job with your oldest daughter. Wouldn't she be happy to contribute her share of the family expenses, once she is working?

With her teaching, I would think that the three younger children would very definitely need you at home. They are apparently not lacking food, clothing or shelter.
As they get bigger they may want to take advantage of activities inherent in rural life, and help the family budget as well. Interest them in the 4-H Club; one of the most worthwhile organizations for young people there is. Ample opportunity to be useful, plus an awareness of the wonders of nature, are gifts money simply cannot buy.

As for yourself, since you have a starter kit for leathercraft, how about learning the art of book-binding? Judging from the estimates recently given me on reconditioning the books in my library, it pays well. Ask the people who sold you the leathercraft kit to recommend a correspondence course on book-binding. As to other ideas, have you ever considered making slip-covers or doing upholstery? Whenever I have that work done, I've always regretted not being able to do it myself because it costs so much. For still other suggestions send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Turn Your Spare Time Into Cash."

Dear Helen: I'm 16 and have never been kissed but my mother won't believe me. Now, lying has become a habit. Try as I will to show my love for her, she still scoffs. Could she be going through the change of life? I love and need her. Help me to win her confidence. —Desperate

Dear Desperate: Cheer up. That first kiss is just around the corner. Not being a doctor, I can't diagnose the state of your mother's health. Why not have a confidential talk with your family physician?

Dear Helen: John, whom I've been seeing for over a year, proposed last night. I was bowled over for no matter how I try, it's impossible to please

Spring Hill Wins 2 From Willisville

Friday night Spring Hill played host to Willisville and captured two of three games.
The Hempstead Junior boys downed the visitors by a 24 to 19 score. Scotty Key had 8 and Ronnie Kidd 6 points for Spring Hill while West had 8 and Hicks 5 for the losers.

The Willisville Senior girls tore up Spring Hill's girls 51 to 28. Evans made 18 and P. Goodwin 15 for Willisville. Pam Butler had 8, Jackie Kidd 7, Connie Martin and Litta Powell 6 each for the losers.

Gary Kidd tossed in 26 points to lead the Spring Senior boys to a 60-58 victory in a close one. Dennis Polk made 20. Willisville Almond pushed in 24 points as did teammate Pennington.

him. For example, he doesn't like the way I fix my hair. I've done it in every conceivable style but still no praise. He said only this past weekend, "If you don't do your hair the way I like it, I'll find a girl that can." Then, last evening he asked me to marry him. I do love him but should I risk marriage with such a carper? —Unhappy

Dear Unhappy: If you can't please a man before marriage, you aren't likely to succeed afterward. This carper doesn't sound very lovable to me, but if you want to give him one more chance, you might try a wig.

Brazil Points to Conflict With U.S.

By JOHN M. NIGHTOWER
A.P. Diplomatic Correspondent
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—In his easy-going country doctor manner, President Arturo U. Illia diagnosed the ailment afflicting relations between the United States and Argentina—and the rest of Latin America, for that matter. The disease: Misunderstanding, mostly by Americans, in his view.

"This is one of the fundamental questions that the American people must understand: We in Latin America are making a real effort to try to stabilize ourselves," he said.
Americans, he implied, could help by understanding the action his government plans to take in nullifying multimillion dollar contracts with U.S. oil firms. This is something that must be done, he said, despite the fact that the plans already have created a bad turn in U.S.-Argentina relations.

The 63-year-old, white-haired back-country physician displayed enormous confidence in a 90-minute interview that he could do the job ahead of him: Rebuilding Argentina after a long period of military domination that shattered the nation's democratic government.
Elected July 7 and inaugurated Oct. 12, Illia is only now beginning to formulate action programs for economic, social and political reforms he and his people's radical party are pledged to make.

Until he became president, Illia practiced medicine and was active in politics in the central province of Cordoba. He is a tall, slender, fatherly man. He has impressed American diplomats and businessmen here as sincerely determined to carry through his reform program.

Here are a series of questions and answers given during the interview:

Q—Mr. president, as you know, Cuba has been expelled from the Organization of American States. In this sense, would you be in favor of re-admitting Cuba to the O.A.S.?

A—I think we should do our best for Cuba and the Cuban people to be restored to democracy, to inter-American life and to participation in the O.A.S. There exists a decision taken by the American nations in the last conference, and we respect it.

Q—Another question, Mr. president, also on the theme of foreign policy. Have you had time to think about the possibility of trading with Communist countries, particularly with Russia and Red China?

A—We will trade with all countries in the world with which Argentina finds it suitable to trade. We will adopt in this sense the sovereign conception of a country that has a right to exercise this function as all other democratic countries of the world are doing now.

Bobcats Win But Drop in State Rating

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pine Bluff, Fort Smith and Texarkana, the top three teams in the Big Ten Conference football standings, were solid favorites for the top three spots in this week's Associated Press Arkansas high school football poll.

The Zebras, No. 1 in the Big Ten and defending conference champions, seem to have almost a clear track to another title this season. Pine Bluff has only one dangerous foe left —

Little Rock Central, which will journey to Pine Bluff on Nov. 15. Pine Bluff collared all the first place votes.

Fort Smith, which moved into second place in conference standings with a victory over Texarkana last Friday night, got all the second place votes, and Texarkana, tied for first in the league with Pine Bluff until the loss to Fort Smith and second in the poll last week, was the only choice for third. Fort Smith moved up from third a week ago.

Little Rock Central got all but two votes for fourth place, but the Tigers got fourth. Little Rock Hall, which had two votes for fourth, was fifth.

The poll could be shaken up after next Friday night's action, when Hall takes on Fort Smith at Little Rock.

North Little Rock, with a come-from-behind victory over Region 3AA's Conway, jumped from the list of also-rans into sixth place.

Benton was squeezed down a notch, from sixth to seventh. West Memphis dropped from seventh to an also ran, with Blytheville moving from ninth to eighth.

Hope went from eighth to ninth, and Russellville came from among the also rans to take 10th from Warren.

Results of the poll, with first place votes in parentheses, and total points at right:

1. Pine Bluff (8)	80
2. Fort Smith	72
3. Texarkana	64
4. Little Rock Central	54
5. Little Rock Hall	47
6. Texarkana	64

Some High Rank Teams Are Upset

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

It was a black October for the leading college football teams. Week after week many of the top ranked outfits took it on the chin.

4. Little Rock Central	54
5. Little Rock Hall	47
6. North Little Rock	26
7. Benton	26
8. Blytheville	19
9. Hope	18
10. Russellville	17

Others receiving votes, in order: El Dorado, West Memphis, Little Rock Catholic, Warren, Sheridan.

IN THE FOURTH QUARTER JERRY BURNETT, (No. 27, arrow), Hope Halfback, gets 4 yards. No. 12 is Quarterback McLarty.

Last Saturday was no exception. Wisconsin, Pitt, Dartmouth and Duke tumbled from the unbeaten ranks. No. 1 Texas managed to beat Rice 10-6 and thus remained in the select group along with Princeton, Auburn and Bowling Green. They are the only major teams with perfect records.

Wisconsin, No. 2 ranked, went down before Ohio State 13-10. Pitt, No. 3, lost to No. 10 Navy 24-12. Dartmouth had its 15-game winning streak snapped by Harvard 17-13 and Duke fell before North Carolina State 21-7.

Princeton was about the only leading eleven to have a romp. The Nassau Tigers crushed Cornell 51-14. Bowling Green defeated Kent State 18-3. Auburn, No. 8, had an open date.

In some other surprises Stanford humbled Notre Dame 24-14 in a nationally televised game. Michigan State thumped No. 9 Northwestern 15-7 and Memphis State, 5-0-1, took over as the top independent by knocking off Mississippi State 17-10. Louisiana State's 14-0 victory over Florida also comes in the unexpected category.

The other teams in The Associated Press top ten won. Mississippi, No. 5 beat Vanderbilt 27-7. Alabama, No. 6, took Houston 21-13 and Oklahoma, No. 7, whipped Kansas State 34-9. Illinois, No. 4, came from behind to defeat UCLA 18-12 Friday night.

As it turned out, Tommy Ford's 33-yard touchdown run and Tony Crosby's conversion in the first period was enough for Texas to chalk up its sixth straight. But the Longhorns were on the anxious set until the last minute. Rice quarterbacks Walter McReynolds and Benny Hollingsworth filled the air with passes. The game was in doubt until Joe Dixon intercepted a long heave by Hollingsworth on the Texas 10 with less than 60 seconds to play.

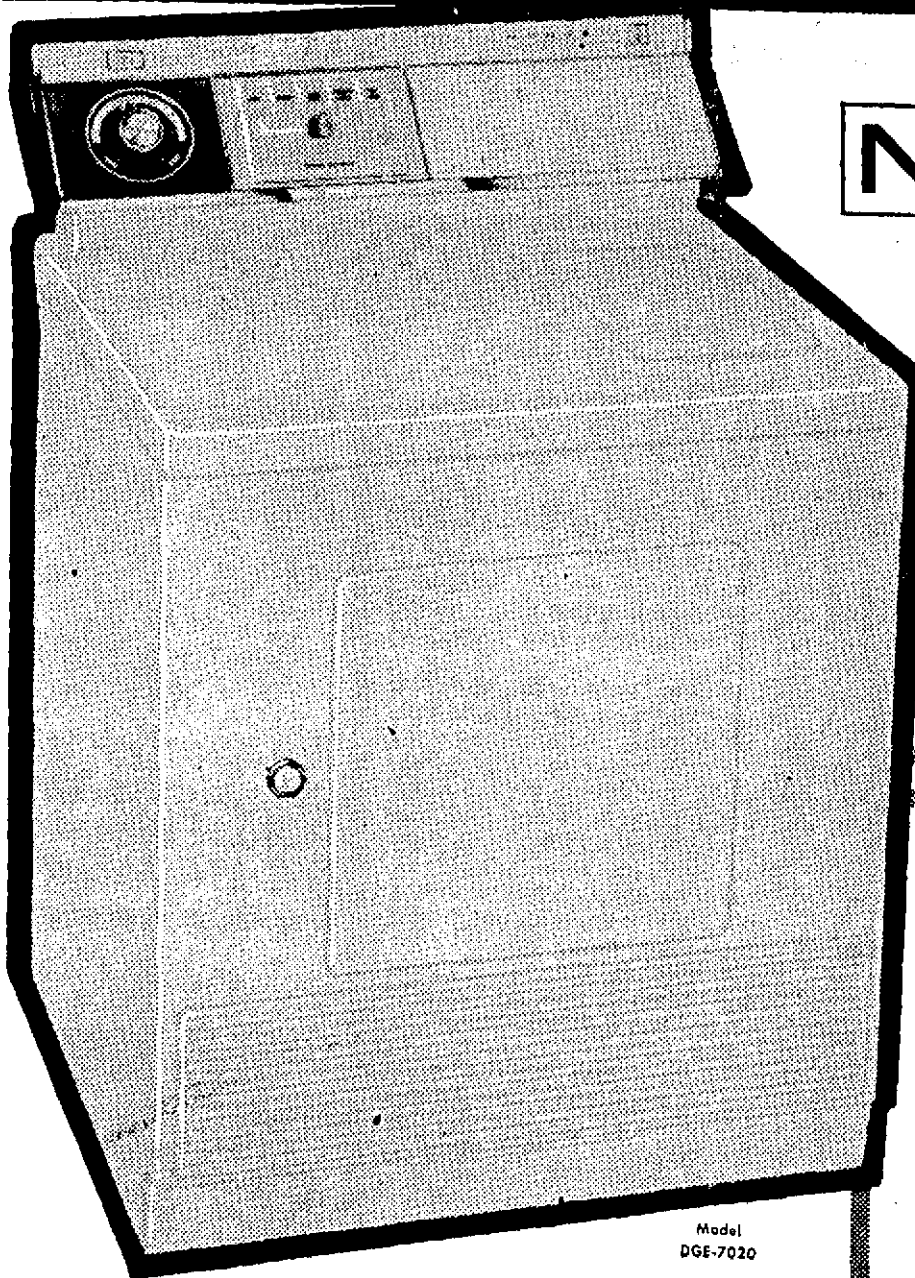

Roger Staubach starred as usual for Navy as the Middles whopped Pitt. Don Unverferth came off the bench to lead Ohio State to its victory over Wisconsin. So did Bill Humenuk for Harvard as the Crimson ended Dartmouth's streak, which had been the longest for a major team.

Games involving the top ten teams this week find Texas at Southern Methodist, Wisconsin at Michigan State, Syracuse at Pitt, Purdue at Illinois, Mississippi at Louisiana State, Colorado at Oklahoma, Florida at Auburn, Northwestern at Michigan and Navy at Notre Dame.

Steamboats on the rivers and wagon trains over what little roads there were comprised trade routes from Arkansas in the early days.

Giants Take Care of the Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) — New York Coach Allie Sherman had a plan to defeat the previously unbeaten Cleveland Browns — control the ball, move it in short bursts and smother the league's best offense.

It was a tall order. But the Giants, in a do-or-die game for them, did it all and more Sunday before 84,213 stunned fans en route to a 33-6 National Football League victory.

Y. A. Tittle hit on 21 of 31 passes for 214 yards and two touchdowns. Alex Webster ran over for another score and Don Chandler booted field goals from the 29, 34, 33 and 42-yard lines and kicked three conversions for a total of 15 points.

How well the Giants controlled the ball can be seen in the statistics. They ran off 78 plays, or 40 more than Cleveland, which now has a 6-1 record compared with 5-2 marks for New York and St. Louis in the NFL Eastern Conference.

Jim Brown was held to 40 yards on nine carries and Frank Ryan completed only one of nine passes—and that for a minus six yards to Ernie Green, who was injured on the play.

Temper got out of control 52 seconds before the final gun when Brown and Giants' linebacker Tom Scott traded punches and both were ejected.

Hawks Down Baltimore by 123-112

BALTIMORE (AP) — Gus Johnson turned in the best performance of his brief pro career but it wasn't enough as St. Louis defeated Baltimore 123-112 in Sunday's lone National Basketball Association game.

Johnson, a 6-foot-6 235-pound rookie who played only one season at the University of Idaho, scored 34 points despite leaving the game with an injury with six minutes remaining.

The Hawks staged a sizzling second half surge to win it. The score stood at 55-55 at halftime but at the third quarter mark St. Louis enjoyed a 107-77 advantage.

A record opening crowd of 10,333 at the Boston Garden watched the Celtics overcome

OPPOSE VACCINATIONS — The Arkansas Supreme Court has ordered a lower court not to change the custody of Linda May, Wayne, and Delia Marie Cude, left to right, until it can be decided if the state can require smallpox vaccinations for them. The parents oppose the vaccinations on religious grounds. The children, shown with their father, Archie Cude, in Mena, Ark., do not attend school because of the requirements for smallpox vaccinations.

Ann Kenyon: Surgeon

By Adeline McElfresh

Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn. © 1960 Adeline McElfresh

"One'll get you 10 it's malignant."

Brill Crayden's voice, though low and somewhat muffled by the thicknesses of gauze of his breathing mask, sounded loud in the almost profound operating room quiet. Even in this hushed moment before Dr. Scotlin made the initial incision there was the steady hiss of the sterilizers, the whisper of rubber soles as the nurse, who had made a last check of her instrument setup, moved into her position at the head surgeon's side. Ann Kenyon, who like Brill not learn anything by doing a bronchoscopy, very probably was, as Brill said, malignant? She could take a later train and, even though she would not have the blessed privacy of her reserved compartment, she would have the same hours to herself — hours which while she would share them to a certain extent with other passengers, still would be her own. It had been a long time, it seemed, since her hours away from the hospital had belonged to her to do with as she wished. The knowledge troubled her and it shouldn't, she thought. She was in love with Brill Crayden and he with her, so why should she resent his claim upon her time? Why should these long, long, traveling — alone hours seem suddenly so precious?

Baltimore 123-108 Saturday night. It was the third victory for the unbeaten Celts.

Although done with relative frequency, opening a man's chest is tricky business even for a surgeon such as Dr. Gregory Scotlin and even in an operating room like the ones at Rocky Head General Hospital where neither personnel nor equipment need take a seat beside even the much larger hospitals in New York City or in Bridgeport, across the Sound.

Ann's mouth usually curved into a fond smile when she thought of that. How like Granddad, who would have been as proud and happy as her father and she had been when General Hospital at Rocky Head, out on Long Island, had accepted her for a surgical residency; as her father would have been proud had he lived to know that, at the end of her residency, she had been invited to stay on as a staff surgeon.

She could see the pleura now, there beyond the swift-moving, deft, rubber-gloved hands—Dr. Scotlin's hands, Brill's, her own—and soon they would know if the tumor had invaded the glistening membrane or had attacked the thoracic wall itself.

"Give me more room if you can, Brill," the surgeon said. Brill widened the retractor a cautious fraction. "See anything?"

"An ulcerated area. Small, but—" Dr. Scotlin broke off, lost in evaluating what he did see. It was that "but" and the ensuing silence that held the key. Any indication of metastases would indicate pneumo-

The scalpel's swift path across the man's chest blotted the thought from Ann's consciousness. She no longer was Ann Kenyon who was in love with Brill Crayden, she was Doctor Kenyon, one of the surgeons assisting Dr. Van Every was standing by but unless some extremely remote emergency, he would not take an actual part in the operation. Having a competent surgeon on stand-by was one of Dr. Scotlin's cardinal rules, stemming, Ann knew, from the day, years ago, when an operating surgeon had blacked out in that fraction of an instant when the patient's life hung in the balance.

The tiny clink of the discarded scalpel, the one with which Dr. Scotlin had made the initial incision and so was surgically unclean, was a punctuation mark at the end of the thought. Miss Vernon passed another scalpel into the surgeon's hand. Ann's hands, rubber-gloved, slender-fingered, joined the chief surgeon's in the operative area, clamping off a vein, and then another, moving with Dr. Scotlin's own swift skill, so perfectly co-ordinated with his that they might have been directed from the same cerebrum.

Behind her mask Ann wet her lips. What was a missed train, when that ugly insidious something, a shadow on the X-ray films which originated in the pleural cavity where they could nectomy and since the tumor was ulcerating, the radical operation was indicated anyhow. As if his thoughts had been pacing her own, Dr. Scotlin said, "There's a nodule... another. Elbridge—"

"Ready here." Ann drew a deep breath. Good-by the visit with Dot and Rich before the convention began. They would be several hours in surgery, she might not even get away before tomorrow.

The hours that followed were at once an eternity and such evanescent separate wisps of time that each seemed gone before it possibly could have more than begun.

"Ann—"

The operation was over, the tension that had gripped them all had let go its suffocating strangle hold and Dr. Scotlin, changed from the blood-stained surgical gown to fresh whites, had followed their patient toward the recovery room, when Brill's voice halted Ann at the door to her scrub room. She took her time turning. "Yes, Brill?" The cool tone belied her tripping heart and she had the uneasy feeling that Brill knew it.

"Nice job." "Thank you, Brill." Thank you, Brill, for keeping it impersonal, she thought but did not say. If he didn't, if she didn't — "I've got to hurry, Brill."

"I'll drive you."

"Oh, Brill, no! Aloud she said, "Please don't, Brill."

He shrugged. "Whatever you say," Brill's anger stirred, but only momentarily, in his dark eyes. "I guess Scotlin's sore."

Ann drew a deep breath. "I don't blame him, Brill."

"You made that quite apparent."

"I'm sorry about that, Brill."

"You always are," Brill reminded her. "What's the matter with you and Scotlin anyhow? What's so sacrosanct about an operating room?"

Ann didn't answer him. She pushed open the scrub-room door and walked inside, feeling wooden, empty, as hurt as she had felt last night. Oh, Brill! some part of her wept deep inside. She washed up and, fumbling zipper and buttons in her hurry, dressed in the beautiful-

Ro, Lo, Mo, Ko, YAT and a toe.

That spelled victory for New York Sunday, a 33-6 walloping of the previously unbeaten Cleveland Browns in a National Football League game so completely dominated by the Giants that even Coach Allie Sherman had to admit:

"Maybe, we made some mistakes out there, but I didn't see any."

As for beaten Coach Balton Collier, he agreed:

"They imply outplayed us in every single angle of the game." And that the Giants did, from the splendid defense led by the Ro, Lo, Mo, Ko boys to the offensive heroes—Y. A. Tittle, the balding quarterback who's YAT to his teammates, and Don Chandler, the man with the toe that kicked four field goals.

But the biggest single factor had to be the defense, led by the fearsome front four of Ro, Lo, Mo, Ko—Andy Robustelli, John Loveters, Dick Modzelewski and Jim Katcavage, who conforms to Ko because "Kat don't go."

Neither did Jimmy Brown, nor Frank Ryan, Brown, the league's No. 1 rusher with a 150-yard-a-game average, was limited to 40 yards in nine carries. Ryan completed exactly one pass in nine attempts and wound up with minus six yards for his efforts.

The Browns' less deprived the NFL of its last unbeaten team, ty tailored black suit she had worn to the hospital this morning because it traveled well. A few minutes later she let herself into the corridor through a little-used rear door to the surgical suite. For the first time since she had arrived as a brand-new Resident, she could not get out of Rocky Head General Hospital fast enough.

but Cleveland still leads the Eastern Conference with a 6-1 record, one game ahead of New York and St. Louis both 5-2. The Cardinals kept pace with the Giants as Charlie Johnson pitched three TD passes in a 21-7 victory over Washington.

Green Bay and Chicago remained tied for the top spot in the West. The Packers made the most of top performances by second-stringers John Roach and Elijah Pitts for a 34-20 walloping of Baltimore and the Bears defeated Philadelphia 16-7 on two long drives engineered by Billy Wade.

Elsewhere, Ed Brown passed for four touchdowns as Pittsburgh edged Dallas 27-21, Detroit got three TD passes from Earl Morrall in a 28-10 triumph over Minnesota and Los Angeles used Roman Gabriel's passing to down San Francisco 28-21.

In the American League, Oakland upset San Diego 34-33 and Houston whipped Kansas City 28-7. Buffalo defeated Boston 28-21 and New York and Denver tied 35-35 Saturday night.

The Giants scored the first seven times they had the ball, with Tittle passing 23 yards to Del Shofner and six to Hugh McElhenney for TDs, Alex Webster smashing two yards for another and Chandler kicking field goals of 29, 34, 35 and 42 yards. The Browns scored on a 10-yard pass from reserve quarterback Jim Ninowski to Rich Kreitling in the final quarter.

Gillman Has Taught His Pupils Well

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sid Gillman, the old professor of the American Football League, has taught his pupils well. Too well for Coach Sid Gillman.

Two of Gillman's able assistants have become head coaches in the AFL—Jack Faulkner at Denver and Al Davis at Oakland. Faulkner's Broncos have beaten San Diego three times without a loss. Gillman matched wits with Davis for the first time Sunday.

He's 0-4 against his pupils now.

Cotton Davidson's nine-yard touchdown pass to Glenn Shaw, reactivated from the deferred injury list just before the game, carried the Raiders from behind to a stunning 34-33 upset of the Western Division leading Chargers.

The victory pulled the Raiders to within 1½ games of the front-runners. San Diego is 5-2, Oakland 4-4.

Houston took over the top spot in the East as George Blanda passed for three second half touchdowns in the Oilers' 28-7 triumph over Kansas City. Houston leads with a 5-3 record.

Boston dropped to a tie for second at 4-4 after a 28-21 loss to Buffalo Saturday night while New York remained in contention at 3-3-1 after a 35-35 tie with Denver before a record AF turnout in New York of 20,377.

The four-game program attracted 106,133, the season's high.

In the National League, New York overwhelmed Cleveland 33-6, Green Bay walloped Baltimore 34-20, St. Louis defeated Washington 21-7, Chicago downed Philadelphia 16-7, Pittsburgh edged Dallas 27-21, Detroit whipped Minnesota 28-10 and Los Angeles defeated San Francisco 28-21.

The Chargers led 23-14 in the third quarter when Davidson took over for Tom Flores, who threw a pair of touchdown passes before being forced out with a head injury. Where Flores was good, Davidson was better. He hit for three TD passes—39 yards to Dobbie Craig, 46 to Art Powell and the clincher to Shaw.

HEAD FOR MANEUVERS — Heavy M-48 tanks of the U.S. 2nd Armored Division pull out of a staging area near Spebach, Germany, heading for NATO maneuvers. The division was flown from Texas to Germany in operation "Big Lift." U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk has arrived in Germany to dispel West German concern that U.S. troop strength will be cut because of the success of "Big Lift."

Lusty Victory Gives Porkers a 3-3 Season

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas evened its season record to 3-3 with a mighty offensive splurge against Tulsa last Saturday, and prepares to return to Southwest Conference football action and a chance to even their conference record Saturday against Texas A&M.

The players may have their minds on the A&M game, but it will take fans a while to get over Arkansas' 56-7 victory over the Hurricane from Tulsa.

The Aggies got into Saturday night's game at Little Rock with a season record of 1-4-1 and a conference record of 0-2-1. A victory by the Razorbacks would give them a 2-2 record in the league.

Texas A&M's only victory came over Houston 23-14, but they managed to tie Texas Christian 14-14.

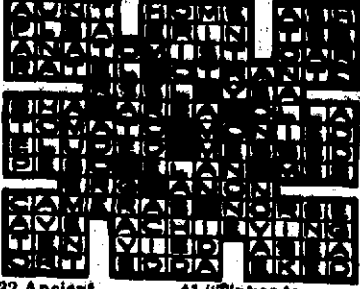

TCU is the only Arkansas conference victory so far, as the Horned Frogs went down 18-3 before the Razorbacks dropped two straight, losing to Baylor, 14

Americans Win Tourney in France

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer

PARIS (AP) — The United States, with Jack Nicklaus chalking up a fantastic run of birdies, won the Canada Cup Golf Tournament for the fourth straight year today as play in the final round was delayed by fog and then finally cut to nine holes.

Fred Corcoran, tournament director, ruled that all players must complete the 63 holes in order for the tournament to be official. But later he said there was no question but that all would complete today's nine holes thus making the victories of the U. S. and Nicklaus official. Nicklaus birdied six of the nine holes and also won the individual title with a 63-hole total of 237 after being tied with South Africa's Gary Player at the end of 54 holes.

Arnold Palmer, a member of two of the three previous U. S. championship teams, had a 245 to give the U. S. a combined score of 482. Palmer had a 34 for the final nine holes.

The final round originally was scheduled for Sunday but was postponed because of a heavy fog. Fog blanketed the par 72 Saint-nom-la-Breche links today but, after a long delay, lifted enough to permit the players from 33 countries to tee off.
